

HAMILTON COUNTY GOVERNMENT

SHORT/LONG TERM DISABILITY

The County offers its employees two optional products to protect their income if they become disabled. The short-term disability policy begins paying after fourteen consecutive days (two weeks) of disability, and continues paying for up to six months, as long as the employee remains disabled for a covered disability. The long-term disability policy begins paying after 180 consecutive days (six months) of disability, and may continue paying up to age 65, as long as the employee meets the definition of disability.
